Burial Right Holder

When a burial site¹ is paid for, there is no ownership of the actual site or land. Payment entitles the person nominated as the burial right holder to a burial right over the burial site which includes the following:

An entitlement to be buried or inurned and to give consent for others to be buried or inurned;

Authority to grant consent for the inurnment of cremated remains or the reopening for a further burial;

Request Council to impose restrictions on its future use or to close it to future burials or inurnments; and

An entitlement, which is shared with the next of kin of the deceased, to apply for and be granted permission to erect or install a memorial.

¹ Any place in a local government cemetery set aside as a final resting place for the deceased including crypt, grave, mausoleum, niche, vault.

Memorial

A memorial includes

- a) A headstone;
- b) An inscribed plaque or commemorative plaque;
- c) Monumental, ornamental or other structures erected on a burial site;
- d) Anything else erected or placed to mark the site where human remains have been buried or placed, or to commemorate a deceased person.
