

HOME BASED BUSINESS CHECKLIST

The following checklist is an assessment of the requirements for accepted development under the Accommodation activities code for a home based business located in the following zones:

- Low density residential zone
- Low-medium density residential zone
- Medium density zone
- Township Zone
- Rural residential zone – located in the Park Residential Precinct

The requirements for accepted development must be met at all times of the operation of the home based business.

How to complete this checklist

Complete Part A first. Part A includes the requirements for accepted development. If you answer 'yes (complies) or N/A' to all applicable requirements for accepted development, the home based business is considered accepted development and does not require a planning application to commence.

If you answer 'no (does not comply)' to one or more applicable requirements for accepted development a planning application, called a Material Change of Use, is required and Part B can be completed and provided as supporting information to the application.

PART B – Requirement for assessable development

Where a question was answered 'no' in PART A it has been determined that the development cannot comply with the requirements for accepted development and a code assessable development application is required.

The development application must address the following Performance Outcome of the Accommodation activities code. Part A and Part B can be completed and provided as supporting information to the application.

Performance Outcome (PO4)

The home based business:

- a) is an appropriate scale relative to the following:
  - i. the primary use of the site as a dwelling;
  - ii. the adjoining land use;
  - iii. the location of the site; and
  - iv. the function of the road servicing the site;
- b) is integrated with the primary use of the site for a dwelling and it is not easily distinguishable from the primary dwelling;
- c) has regard to the safety of residents on the site and residents on adjoining premises;
- d) does not adversely affect the character or amenity of the streetscape; and
- e) does not compromise the character and amenity of the immediate area.

Response:

A statement addressing the relevant Performance Outcome of the relevant overlay code must be provided.
